

HOW THE CORONAVIRUS CAN BE STOPPED IN ITS TRACKS

March 7, 2020

This virus that has become an international epidemic was released from heaven for the express purpose of what I am about to share, so I hope you read the following in its entirety before making any judgments. Notably, this current virus will not be like anything else before. Left unchecked, it will infiltrate every sector. But how we mitigate it will not be through more billions of dollars or medical experts racing to find a vaccine, although these measures are essential when there is nothing else.

Know that the financial markets' current destabilization is just a harbinger of more catastrophic upheaval. If it reaches acute stages or the tipping point, you will be blamed, and your Presidency will be in jeopardy. The problem is that the trajectory of this virus is far outrunning any medical or financial efforts to mitigate it—you will be like holding the tiger by the tail.

Furthermore, its lethal nature will accelerate the death count. Fear will grow acute within the belly of America, and reach unprecedented proportions; people will quake with panic. What we have seen is only a foretaste and harbinger to come between now and the summer. Millions of dollars set aside to combat it will be a drop in the bucket, but it will be like water that falls on the ground and rolls away. The extent of loss in the corporate and commercial centers, due to a cessation of the money supply at the consumer and corporate level, will be unstoppable. The business expansion that you have brought to the country will reverse; jobs decline; precious metals will be accelerating, and inflation will increase due to a shortage of goods and services as already showing up.

What am I to do?

The above question is why this writing has been forwarded to you, Mr. President. Within the evangelical community, there is an unrelenting conviction that you have been placed in the highest office of the land by God—you are God's man for this season. You have been faithful in placing the US Embassy in Jerusalem and recognizing Jerusalem as Israel's capital. What you have done in one full measure of authority was to fulfill prophecy and bring an era of Biblical order back to the world. You have placed moral Judges on the bench and restored morality at the judicial level.

But I believe God has set before you your most significant victory yet, one on the order of a King Cyrus. It can be the measure of your greatest act, which will fuse the US population to your side. In other words, it will ensure your next four years.

Again, what am I to do?

During this growing panic and fear, and economic turbulence, God says, "call a National Day of Prayer." This will not cause alarm, but relief and assurance— call for a National Day of Prayer for God to protect "your" people. Recall, God has given you the role of a national steward and protector of the people of America as you call for a National Day of Prayer and invoke the name and power of God. It will release the anointing of heaven that came with your ascent to the office.

God has revealed to me, and as you call a national day of prayer, God will stop this in its tracks. It will testify to the nations of the world that we are still a nation under God, that you President Trump have been placed upon the seat of power for such a time as this. Allow me to repeat this, "God will stop it in its tracks." The economy will begin to get lift and buoyancy again; panic and fear will recede; you will be assured the next four years, and this Presidency will be remembered on the order of a Moses bringing the Israelites out of Egypt through a safe passage through the Red Sea.

President Trump, I know in your heart, you are a man of God. I beseech you to pray and consider what has been presented. Millions upon millions have the same conviction. Only "you," President Trump, have the authority and persuasion before God, not the Vice President or any other representative or advisor.

God is giving you your greatest gift yet. One of the greatest modern miracles of our time, as countries witness the miracle. You will bring healing to our nation, and we will be like a stream in the desert again, an oasis international honor for what you have done.

Respectively Yours
Your servant, Rabbi Felix Halpern
